

LEIGH ESTUARY NEWSFLASH

March 2018

MONTHLY
MEETING & UPCOMING EVENTS
Thursday 15th March 2018 at 2.30pm
(Front Doors open at 2pm)

Murray Craig – Clerk of the Chamberlain’s Court at Guildhall since 2001 (Assistant Clerk 1997 – 2001).

Murray will be speaking on ‘Famous people who have received the Freedom of the City of London’. His main role is admitting people to the Freedom of the City of London in a ceremony dating back to the thirteenth century. He is only the 37th Clerk since 1294. The post also entails working closely with the Livery Companies on matters of protocol, procedure and ordinances as well as archival and research work.

Group Tables: The following groups will have a table at our next meeting: Wildlife Walks: Tap Dancing: Mah Jong. Group Contacts will be happy to discuss what they do in their groups before and after the meeting.
