

Greenwich Ahoy!

A nautical visit to the Capital

10:30am Tower Pier.

Meet your guide at Tower Pier. Here you will join the boat to cruise down river to the elegant town of Greenwich.

10:50am City Cruises Trip Down River to Greenwich.

You may wish to enjoy a coffee or tea onboard this cruiser while your crew regale you with a witty commentary about the sights along the river banks. (Timing subject to timetable changes.)

11:30am Greenwich Market.

On leaving the boat, your guide will escort you around the historic Greenwich Market. Greenwich Market was established in 1700 and has evolved over the centuries to become the world heritage site it is today.

12:30pm Lunch at Café Rouge.

Enjoy a delicious two-course lunch with tea and coffee at this well located French Bistro in the heart of Greenwich.

2.00pm Royal Naval College.

After lunch your guide will escort you around the stunning facades of the Old Royal Naval College situated on the banks of the River Thames. Visit the Painted Hall (Greenwich answer to the Sistine Chapel) and the College Chapel, you will be amazed by the treasures held within this building and its significance in history.

3.00pm Time to Explore.

Why not visit the Cutty Sark exhibition (entrance fee not included), or simply find a nautical watering hole along the river where you can sit with a drink and watch the boats go by!

Price includes:

- Your guide for the day
- Single river trip from Tower Pier to Greenwich
- 2 course lunch with tea/coffee
- 1 free place with 35 paying passengers

March - October 2019

£30.50 per person

(Minimum numbers 35)

Tel: 0161 928 2001 Email: daytrips@greendays.co.uk Web: www.greendays.co.uk