

Any Dream Will Do

[C7] I closed my [F] eyes, [C] drew back the [F] curtain [B ♭]
 To see for [F] certain [C] what I thought I [F] knew [C]
 Far far a [F] way, [C] someone was [F] weeping [B ♭]
 But the world was [F] sleeping [C], any dream will [F] do [C]

I wore my [F] coat, [C] with golden [F] lining [B ♭]
 Bright colours [F] shining, [C] wonderful and [F] new [C]
 And in the [F] east, [C] the dawn was [F] breaking [B ♭]
 And the world was [F] waking [C], any dream will [F] do [F7]

Bridge (single strums)

| : A [B ♭] crash of drums, a [/] flash of light,
 My [G7] golden coat flew [/] out of sight
 The col[F]ours faded [/] into darkness, [C] I was left a [C7] lone

May I re[F]turn [C] to the be[F]ginning [B ♭]
 The light is [F] dimming, [C] and the dream is [F] too [C]
 The world and [F] I, [C] we are still [F] waiting [B ♭]
 Still hesi[F]tating [C] any dream will [F] do [F7] : |

any dream will [F] do [F7]

any dream will [F] do [C] (fade at end)
